

COVID-19's Financial Impact

Over 1,600 Physicians across multiple specialties weighed in on the financial effect of the pandemic and their thoughts on moving forward with the new protocols for post COVID-19 healthcare.

Anticipated loss in revenue for 2020 as a result of COVID-19

Staffing affected by furlough or permanent reduction

52% Support staff 40% Clinicians

27% Physicians

49% expect a decrease in office appointments after the country is fully re-opened and telemedicine visits will be part of the new normal.

1/3

of physicians are experiencing delays in payment from insurance and direct pay.

15%

report a financial benefit from COVID-19, many citing PPP loans or practice improvements from telehealth implementation.

91% are not considering major purchases in the next 6 months.

9%

are offering ancillary services to offset revenue loss.

Understanding what matters to you drives our inspiration.

Request the full Survey Results